

Piotr Tabakiernik

Polish composer born in 1986. In 2009 he graduated composition at The Frederic Chopin University of Music (class of Prof. Stanislaw Moryto). He won several prizes on composers competitions, e.g.: 4th prize and special prize on 2nd International Composers Competition Musica Sacra in Czestochowa. His compositions were performed inland and abroad. He wrote music for many theater plays, movies and other events. He is also interested in performance art, happening and – besides music – the linguistic and language theory.

Major works

Streets are drunk and whisperin' secret dialects for cello and piano (2007)

Felieton for orchestra (2007)

Concerto for things and instruments (2008)

Kha for performer and computer (2009)

Three pieces for orchestra (2009)